Dear Friends,

We hope you enjoy our first newsletter! We want to keep you informed of what's happening at CASA Youth Advocates, and we encourage you to visit our website for information about what we do, and also what you can do.

Introducing our new web site!

We are very proud to announce the launch of our new web site at www.DelcoCASA.org. The new site features video of our staff and volunteers, news, event information, and more. We have also created pages specifically for our volunteers and board members. Check out the new site here.

Tobby Willis receives Volunteer Of the Year Award

We're pleased to honor our 2010 Volunteer of the Year - Tobby Willis. CASA honors Tobby Willis for his consistent commitment to his assigned child.

Tobby travels two hours one way to visit his child who is living in a foster home in Central Pennsylvania and despite the distance he remains very involved with the child, the foster parents and the child's school. He is the one stable relationship for this child over the duration of Tobby's involvement with CASA. The child has been through many changes and Tobby has been there to support the child. He is a wonderful example of the work our CASAs do with so many children every day.

Tobby's enthusiasm is contagious and his commitment to CASA is an inspiration for other volunteers. Learn more about Tobby's experiences at CASA by viewing a video here.

Jack Whelan, 2010 Honoree

John J. "Jack" Whelan serves as Chairman of Delaware County Council, which oversees the county government operations that serve the 550,000 residents of Delaware County. CASA honors Jack Whelan for his leadership on Delaware County Council in support of CASA, its mission and its services to the dependent children of Delaware

County.
